DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 12 recites the limitation "fourth rotary shaft motor" in line 1 and 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1,3,4,13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hattori (US 6802382). Hattori discloses a robot moving on legs and control method comprising: a robot comprising a hip joint (Fig below) with a first rotary shaft (Fig below) that is the hip yaw axis (16), a second rotary shaft (Fig below) that is the hip roll axis (18), a third rotary shaft (Fig below) that is the hip pitch axis (17) and a fourth rotary Shaft (Fig below) that results in a degree of freedom; Hattori further discloses a knee joint (Fig below) and an ankle joint (Fig below). {{Examiner likes to point out that the figure seen below is indeed figure 7 in Hattori's}}. Regarding claim 3, the fourth rotary shaft is in not parallel to the yaw axis as seen below. Regarding claim 4, the fourth rotary shaft is placed forwardly of the first shaft as seen in figure 8. Regarding claim 13, figure 8 also shows the first rotary shaft being offset in the direction of the roll axis.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The information disclosure statement filed 10/24/05 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2 and 5-11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claim 12 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kuroki (US 7113849). Kuroki discloses an ambulation control apparatus.
